The match starts off with a bang, as Inarizaki's ace, Aran Ojiro, scores a point with a powerful spike. Karasuno is quickly put on the defensive, but they manage to score a few points of their own. However, Inarizaki's blocking is proving to be a major obstacle, and Karasuno is having trouble finding ways to score.

As the match progresses, Karasuno begins to adapt to Inarizaki's blocking. They start using more feints and tips, and they also start to target Inarizaki's weaker blockers. Slowly but surely, Karasuno begins to chip away at Inarizaki's lead.

In the third set, Karasuno finally takes the lead. However, Inarizaki is not about to give up without a fight. They start to use more of their own feints and tips, and they also start to target Karasuno's weaker blockers. The match is now deadlocked, and it is anyone's game.

The fourth set is a back-and-forth affair, with neither team able to gain a significant lead. In the end, it is Karasuno who emerges victorious, winning the set 25-23. With the match now at 2-2, it all comes down to the fifth and final set.

The fifth set is a tense and exciting affair, with both teams giving it their all. In the end, it is Karasuno who emerges victorious, winning the set 15-13 and the match 3-2. Karasuno has finally defeated Inarizaki, and they have earned their place in the national tournament.
