Like the Rumpelstiltskin of old, Nikolai offers Anya a solution to her financial woes: he will spin her a fortune in return for something precious to her. But the price he demands is not gold, but her very heart.

As Anya delves deeper into Nikolai's opulent world, she discovers a man tormented by his own dark past and secrets. Their forbidden desires ignite a flame that threatens to consume them both. But when the truth about Nikolai's intentions unravels, Anya must confront her own greed and the dangerous consequences of her bargain.
